8	Notice to Local Authority of Intended Demolition [Section 80, Building Act 1984]  (1) This section applies to any demolition of the whole or part of a building except- (a) a demolition in pursuant of a demolition order made under Part IX of the Housing Act 1985, and (b) a demolition – (1) of an internal part of a building, where the building is occupied and it is intended that it should continue to be occupied, (2) of a building that has a cubic content (as ascertained by external measurement) of not more than 1750 cubic feet (50 m <sup>3</sup> ), or, where a greenhouse, conservatory, shed or prefabricated garage forms part of a larger building, of that greenhouse, conservatory, shed or prefabricated garage, or (3) without prejudice to sub-paragraph (ii) above, of an agricultural building within the meaning of any of the paragraphs 3 to 7 of Schedule 5 to the Local Government Finance Act 1988, unless it is contiguous to another building that is not itself an agricultural building or a building of a kind mentioned in that subparagraph. (2) No person shall begin a demolition to which this section applies unless – (a) he has given the local authority notice of his intention to do so, and (b) either – (1) the local authority have given notice to him under section 81, or (2) the relevant period (as defined in section 81 i.e. 6 weeks) has expired. (3) A notice under subsection (2) above shall specify the building to which it relates and the works of demolition intended to be carried out, and it is the duty of a person giving such a notice to a local authority to send or give a copy of it to – (a) the occupier of any building adjacent to the building, (b) any public gas supplier (as defined in Part I of the Gas Act 1986) in whose authorised area (as so defined) the building is situated, and (c) the public electricity supplier (as defined in Part I of the Electricity Act 1989) in whose authorised area (as so defined) the building is situated and any other person authorised by a licence under that Part to supply electricity to the building. (4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) above is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.
